OH, OH ORGANIC INTRODUCES SPECIALTY CHEMIST

Support For Organic and Natural Formulators

Posted: Aug 11, 2009

Sara Lampard

Oh, Oh Organic, Inc. (Campbell, CA) has named innovative chemist, Sara Lampard MSc, as Senior Cosmetic Chemist effective September 1. Lampard was formerly Head R & D Chemist at Smith & Vandiver Corp, Watsonville, CA.

Lampard's cosmetic career began 8 years ago with AG Hair Cosmetics (Vancouver, BC Canada) as an R&D Chemist specializing in professional hair care and then became the lead formulator for Smith & Vandiver Corp in 2006. She has a background in food chemistry, cosmetic formulation/R&D and manufacturing.

Gay Timmons, president of Oh, Oh, said, "Sara brings the perfect storm of familiarity with food ingredients and practical expertise in cosmetic formulation using many of the process standards in the world today. Oh, Oh Organic is gaining a tremendous asset to the organic and naturals cosmetic industry, one who is totally familiar with the industry. As a result of her educational and work background, she excels at innovation and meeting compliance standards. We are confident that she will use her leadership to further the successful development of Oh, Oh in their mission to support increased sustainable product development for the cosmetic industry."

Lampard will be available to consult on organic and natural formulation, stability issues and trouble shooting. Additionally Timmons and Lampard are planning a series of
